Owners at the heart of the European Championships

Since Wednesday July 16, the equestrian stadium in La Coruña (Spain) has been alive to the rhythm of the Longines FEI European Show Jumping Championship. Under the aegis of our Official Partner Longines, this major event for the European equestrian world honors all those involved in our sport: horses, grooms, riders and, of course, owners, many of whom have come to cheer on their horses.

Like all the others, Owners are essential players in the sport, unfailingly supportive and passionate, whatever the final performance. Yesterday, in the final round of the team event, the owners of the horses in the British, German and Belgian teams held their breath right up to the last jump, a fantastic moment of suspense that crowned the Belgian team, as winners, six years after their previous triumph. The Jumping Owners Club would like to congratulate the owners of their horses on this well-deserved success.

Tomorrow, Sunday, just over twenty-five of them will be enthralled by the grand individual final. The JOC wishes them the best of luck, and above all, the satisfaction of a job well done. See you at 2pm for the 1st round of the individual final, to be followed live on FEI TV/ClipMyHorse.

About the Jumping Owners Club

Created in 2004 under the impulsion of the International Equestrian Federation (FEI), the Jumping Owners Club is an exclusive organisation of international owners which works towards growing the popularity of the sport around the world. It is the only body which represents the views and opinions of the owners, and works closely alongside the FEI in building the profile and inclusiveness of Jumping. The Jumping Owners Club provides a platform for owners worldwide to share their common passion of equestrianism.
