Lady Pauline Harris and Lady Pauline Kirkham awarded the Longines Owner of the Year 2025

The Jumping Owners Club is extremely honoured to award the prestigious Longines Owners of the Year to Lady Pauline Harris and Lady Pauline Kirkham. 2025 was a very successful year for Scott Brash with Hello Jefferson, Hello Folie, and Hello Chadora Lady, all horses owned by Lady Harris and Lady Kirkham.

This award, established in 2004 in conjunction with the FEI, recognizes the important involvement of horse owners in the sport of show jumping. It is supported by the Swiss watch brand Longines, the official sponsor of the Jumping Owners Club (JOC).

Chairman of the JOC, Robin Cleary Parsky, said, "It is with sincere pleasure that we award the Owners of the Year to two of the most revered horsewomen of show jumping. Over the past several years Lady Harris and Lady Kirkham have generously supported Scott Brash and his horses, helping them succeed at the very highest levels of international show jumping across the globe. We as friends and fellow owners applaud their commitment to their horses and to our sport. They are exceptional role models, and we wish them continued success."
